

THE £1,000 QUESTION GRIPPING NORTH NORFOLK

Phone lines at North Norfolk Radio – the area’s local radio station – have been jammed solid for several weeks as listeners try and get their hands on more than £1,000 in cash.

Staff at the radio station are now being stopped in the street as listeners try to get clues as to who the mystery person is.

“Who’s on the Red Carpet” is North Norfolk Radio’s daily cash competition, all listeners have to do is work out who the person is. The current personality has been on the Red Carpet since 16th August, and with another £10 added to the jackpot every day the total is now well over £1,000.

“It’s cool to just show up as a fan” are the words which have been driving people crazy. Leonardo DiCaprio, Jack Nicholson, Denzel Washington, George Clooney and Russell Crowe are among the hundreds of wrong guesses.

North Norfolk Radio’s Breakfast presenter Dick Hutchinson said “As soon as it gets close to the competition all our studio phone lines are jammed solid. Everywhere I go people ask me the same question, just who is on the Red Carpet? I really hope to give the money away soon, as more than £1,000 would make a great start to the new year for someone in North Norfolk.”

Programme Manager Graham Lewis said “In response to questions from listeners we will soon start to give out clues to help people work out who the celebrity is.”

The game is played on North Norfolk Radio every weekday between 7.45 and 8.15 and is sponsored by Thurlow Nunn in Holt.

North Norfolk Radio broadcasts from studios on Breck Farm at Stody across North Norfolk on 96.2 and 103.2 fm
